Annexation And Sewage

Guest editorial by Verne Mason, chairman of the Unified Community Committee

The basic reason for annexation is to enable all of the residents of the City of Elsinore and the greater Elsinore Valley area to properly plan for and eventually construct, a master sewage disposal system.

The recent increase in population and construction in Elsinore Valley as a result of the filling of the Lake has forcefully brought to the people's attention the need for a master sewer system.

All other municipal services, such as police, fire, street maintenance, etc. will be provided by the City of Elsinore.

This annexation consists of approximately 15,000 acres. The population is less than 4,000. The registered voters are 1,894. 2200 dwelling units.

The population of the present City of Elsinore is 2,565. Present assessed valuation (secured) is $4,564,410, present assessed valuation of proposed annexation (secured), $5,455,600.

We are now circulating petitions for the necessary 25% of signatures of registered voters in the territory to be annexed, asking the City Council to call an election for annexation. The Council will probably act on them at the first meeting after submitted and call the election as soon as legally possible, within 45 to 70 days after approval.

Only registered voters in the territory to be annexed are legally qualified to sign these petitions.

As we progress to the election this committee will endeavor to present the facts to the voters and public through the news media. The important task at this time is the early signing of the twenty-five petitions now being circulated.

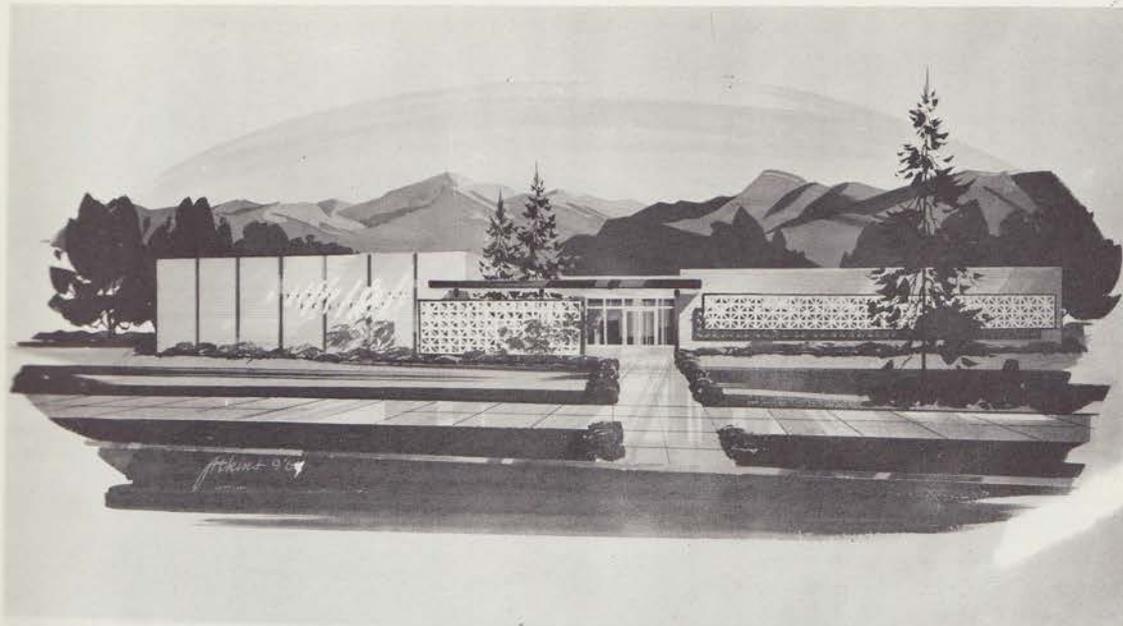

Those desiring information on petitions may call the chairman, Vern Mason at 678-2782 or 678-2689.

Something New Has Been Added

Beginning this issue on page 21 we welcome a new column to the La Laguna Revue entitled "A Name Is Born" by Tom Hudson, author of "The West is my Home" and "Three Paths Along a River".

This column was copyrighted in 1960 by Laguna House, Elsinore, California and at one time was a weekly feature of the Lake Elsinore Valley Sun of which Tom Hudson was publisher.

In this column you will read how names of various places came into being, such as Temecula, Jordan River, Flathead Lake, Bonneville Salt Flats and many more.

New Hospital For Elsinore

To be completed sometime in April

Groundbreaking ceremonies for the new half-million dollar Elsinore Community Hospital were held Friday, October 9th in the presence of over a hundred guests, doctors and local dignitaries.

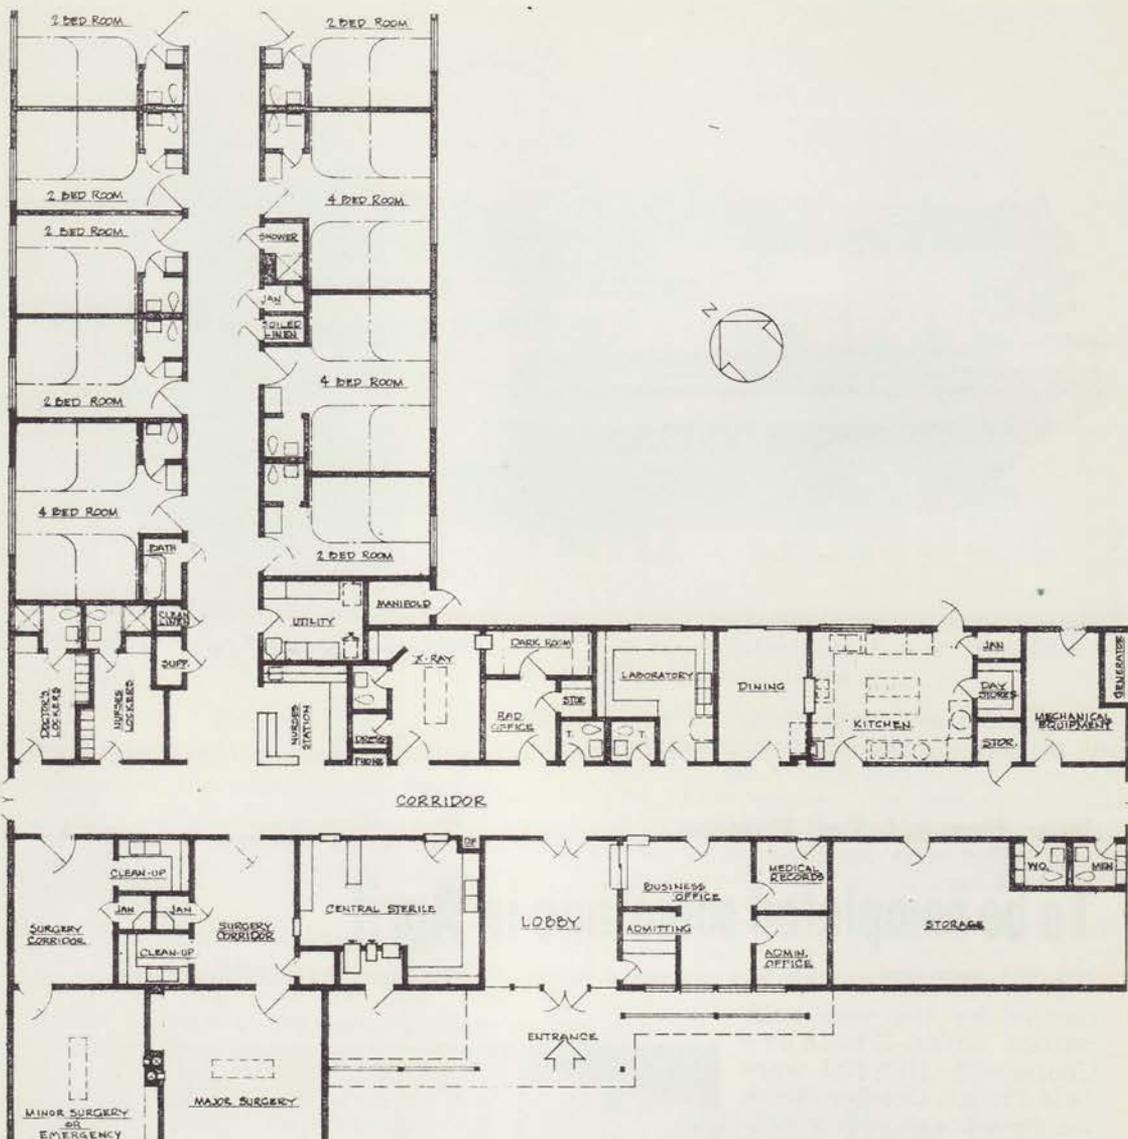

The completely equipped 24 bed medical-surgical hospital will be built on the site located on Walnut Street at Mission Trail in Sedco Hills.

The hospital will be a one-story building of frame and stucco and will be constructed by Hospital Planning and Engineering Company of Santa Monica.

Hugh Harlan, sales manager for the Santa Monica firm, said that the building will house, along with the 24-acute general hospital beds, one major surgery, doctors, an administrator and the citizens of the area.

Designing, engineering, financing and building will be handled by the holding firm, Hospital Planning and Engineering Company, who in turn will lease it to the citizens.

According to Mr. Harlan, bids from local firms should be turned in at the Santa Monica office.

Ample parking facilities and attractive landscaping plans are included in the project's plans along with plenty of room for expansion if necessary.

Mr. Harlan also stated that if all goes according to plans, the hospital will be ready for patients by April of 1965.

Grand Tour of the New England States and Canada

Mrs. Rosanne Ashbridge of Blue Waters Ranch, Elsinore and Mrs. Mona O'Brien of San Diego recently enjoyed a holiday in the East and Canada.

Upon stepping off the plane in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, Mrs. Ashbridge saw a large group moving toward her—all of her relatives had met the plane enmasse. Here she visited the home in which she was raised, "Green Cottage" now a 140-year old landmark.

A visit was made to the street market where the picturesque Amish folks bring their produce. These people still follow the ways of their forefathers in dress and costume; their speech is colorful with local idioms and expressions, for example: "Jakie, load the wagon off so we can hitch the horses out" and "throw Papa down from the hay-mow his hat."

These people still drive the horse and buggy; their farms are well-kept with "hex signs" on their barns and their gates are painted blue if a marriageable daughter lives within.

A society has been formed to preserve the century-old covered bridges, which are rapidly disappearing from other parts of the country. When a bridge is in the way of progress, they move it board by board to a permanent location. Lancaster boasts they have the oldest short line railroad in the United States; the first commercial pretzel bakery in the U. S. and the second lock-covered bridge (1857) the longest in Pennsylvania. It is the home of the Hamilton watch and Schick products.

After the visit to Lancaster, Mrs. O'Brien, who had been visiting in Omaha, and Mrs. Ashbridge met in New York where they visited the World's Fair and were greatly impressed with the Vatican Building with the Pieta and the night scene of the modernistic buildings with the colored lights turned on them.

From there the two women went to the New England States, where an early frost had turned the leaves to gold and red. They were particularly interested in the many miles of beach-frontage, the old buildings, Cape Cod homes and churches.

One island toured is 33-miles long and has 251 Roman Catholic parishes beside other denominations, including a drive-in church.

While at Notre Dame, one of the world's greatest religious edifices, they discovered it has a seating capacity of 5,000; the twin towers are 227 feet in height and contain a peal of eleven bells, among which is the "Gros Bourdon", which with the exceptions of the famous bell of Moscow, is the heaviest bell in the world, weighing 24,780 pounds and can be heard for miles. The main altar is of 22Kt. gold and Notre Dame contains the second largest organ in North America.

After viewing the Christ Church Cathedral, Anglican, erected in 1859, with its stone spire 211 feet high; seeing the island that is being created for the 1967 Fair, the Botanical Gardens, they left Montreal via the Canadian Pacific Railroad Dome train, (the longest in the world) and arrived at their final destination - Banff and Lake Louise.

They left Banff by bus, climbed the old transcontinental highway and saw the snow-capped mountain ranges. First, Mt. Eisenhower with its five ram-parts (for his five stars) next Lake Louise, 5680 feet, and saw Victoria Glacier twice, once against the sky and again reflected

New doctor at Sun City

Dr. Joseph L. Nosal has taken over the practice of medicine of Dr. Ed E. Engel at the Sun City Medical Center and Dr. Engel has established a new practice in Riverside.

Dr. Nosal, a native of Allentown, Pennsylvania, has moved his equipment into the offices occupied by Dr. Engel in the Medical Center for the past year. He has recently been practicing in Hemet but until his Hemet practice, was in Lordsburg, New Mexico for several years.

A graduate of Muhlenberg College in Allentown, Dr. Nosal received his M. D. from Jefferson Medical College; interned at St. Luke's Hospital in Bethlehem, Penn; and after three years as a surgeon in the 104th Infantry Regiment in Europe did graduate work at the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine.

He served as surgical resident instructor in surgery at Hahnemann Medical College & Hospital before going into private practice and completing work on a thesis "Surgery in a Small Town Hospital", and a graduate degree from the University of Pennsylvania.

He is a diplomate of the American Board of Surgery and a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons.

He and his wife, Virginia, are presently living at 25051 Lake Street in Hemet.

They have two children, Frank age 22, a student at Western New Mexico University at Silver City and Elizabeth age 21, a student at Moravian College in Bethlehem.

The Pelican has once more discovered Lake Elsinore as evidenced by these photos taken by Dalton Atherton of Elsinore. These lovely birds are visible in the early morning as they swoop down and land on the lake, but at the first sound they immediately flap their wings and they are off, to where only the Pelican can tell.

Stone, Rock and Block

The going thing in Building and Landscaping

"Find a need, then supply it", must have been the motto John Young of Perris used when he began John Young's Landscaping Materials located off Highway 395 just two miles north of Sun City.

This business, which began in April of 1963 is under the general management of Jim Shaw and the yard houses the most fabulous collection of natural rock in the area. And by "natural" rock we mean that the rock is dug out of good old mother earth and may be of a blue hue or speckled or any color imaginable and it is that same color clear to the core, not painted on the surface.

The rock is shipped from suppliers from all over the Western states and even Mexico. On many occasions one of the many John Young trucks goes to Arizona or Nevada to pick up a load of the unusual decorative rocks.

One might think that a rock is just a rock, but after a visit to the main yard you soon discover that rocks - - - like people - - - have names. There is Pagoda Stone, Featherrock, rose quartz, Apalooche rock and many others and each has a specific purpose.

For instance, the soft beauty and soothing sounds of water as it gently flows, tumbles and falls may be easily achieved with the use of the Featherrock, because you can carve and create caves, pools, canyons and waterways in this natural stone, all for a nominal cost and it is a job that can be a "do-it-yourself" project.

Or there is the Palos Verdes Stone, a natural California Product found only on the Palos Verdes Peninsula. It fills all the requirements for the home mason. It is extremely easy to work, comes with many natural corners and is easy to split. This stone works beautifully into planters.

If you desire a barbecue, wall or planter box you can find cement blocks, either plain or with the fanciest of designs.

Beside the rock, stone and cement department in the yard is a section where tree rings, borders, stepping stones and all of the items necessary to add to the beauty of your yard are stacked and stored.

One area of the yard is devoted to cement, small, colored rock, Barstow rock and the item seen around so many of the new homes and businesses these days, Redwood Bark.

Jim is well-versed on the rock business, having at one time spent fifteen years on the transportation end. He is a local man, residing on Perou Street in Perris, with his wife, Mary, and their four sons. He is an active member of the Lion's Club of Sun City.

In the office manager and bookkeeping department is Thelma Johnson. She is the young lady that keeps the office running smoothly and efficiently.

The John Young Landscaping firm sells primarily retail and delivers the rock and stone to anywhere in Elsinore, Hemet, Perris, Menifee, Sun City

Richens Flower and Gift Shop Wins Award

Grace Richens, owner operator of Richens Florist and Gift Shop, North Main Street in Elsinore, was the October winner of the Lake Elsinore Valley Chamber of Commerce plaque which is given monthly to the merchant who has the best window display.

In the window is a life-sized figure of a bride, attired in a complete bridal outfit furnished by Goda Gown Shop in Riverside and surrounding this model are flowers and various other items pertinent to a wedding.

Mrs. Richens was quite surprised at being the recipient of the plaque, which will have her name engraved on it.

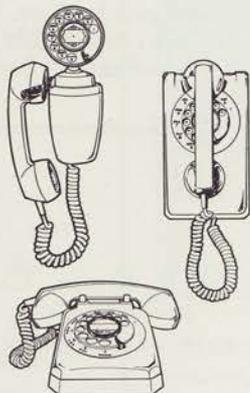

This program of giving the plaque began last month when Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Crane of Clark's Beach presented it to the chamber for this purpose.

September winners were Trudy and Hugh Walker of C. W. Harris and Son Department Store.

How come my picture didn't get in department?

Thanks to you readers we were able to identify the photos we published in the August issue of La Laguna Revue.

Once more we've opened the photo files and located more photos we don't know the why or where of.

In one we recognize Bob and Celeste Grant standing in front of a beautifully decorated cake . . . what is the occasion?

We know Joe Seitz of Elsinore, but who's his buddy, and handcuffed together yet.

Johnny James, track star of Perris.

The photo with the six people — we recognize Clarence Muse, his wife Ena and Murray Snyder (holding plaque). The reason we know Clarence is because on the Channel 9 movie "Caribbean" he played a great part.

The young couple in costume, we know not or the young ladies at the table enjoying the cookies.

Goodbye, John; Hello, Marvin

"John R. Harrison, President, Perris Valley Chamber of Commerce, 1963-1964 'That Wonderful Year' " was the inscription on the plaque presented to John, outgoing president of the Chamber, at the annual installation banquet held at Kings Inn.

Marvin Funk, assistant manager of the Perris branch of Security First National Bank, was installed as president for 1964-1965 at the dinner attended by over 150 members and their guests.

Master of ceremonies for the event was Rev. Luther P. J. Steiner, pastor of Redeemer Lutheran Church of Perris and a past president of the chamber.

Guest speakers were Byron E. Barnes, director of Planning for Daniel, Mann, Johnson and Mendenhall (Dim-Jim Project) and Fred Reinhardt, director of industrial research for the Riverside County Board of Trade.

Mr. Barnes discussed the master planning for the entire valley while Mr. Reinhardt spoke on the future of the valley and progressive thinking.

Reinhardt stated, "Deal now with the problems while they are simple and you can solve them, don't wait until they have become so big that they are impossible to handle satisfactorily."

Serving with Marvin for the coming year will be Frank Pettit, vice president; Russ Stewart, secretary-treasurer; Cecil Babcock, roads and zoning; Harvey Goertzen, parks & recreation; Minnie M. Penn, health, education & welfare; Dwight B. Minnich, civic; Hebbert Christensen, agriculture and water; Charley Buster, publicity and public relations; John C. Brown, legislative and Paul V. Struble, Sr., Housing development.

Members of the executive committee are Marvin Funk, Frank Pettit, R. J. Stewart, Cecil Babcock and John Brown.

Louis R. Boettcher is the representative of the chamber on the industrial committee of the Riverside County Board of Trade.

November meeting to be held at 7 a. m., November 5, at Kings Inn. Guest speaker will be Robert Fitch, assistant to County Administrator Robert Anderson.

Charles Motte, chairman of the industrial committee, has resigned as a director of the chamber. The resignation was accepted by the board with much regret, as Mr. Motte has always been a dependable and capable worker for the chamber. He pledged continued support to the chamber.

A NAME IS BORN

by Tom Hudson

At the foot of Palomar Mountain in Southern California, basking in a blend of desert and ocean breezes, the picturesque village of Temecula has attracted many artists who have endeavored to capture its charm. Perhaps Temecula is best known today because on the summit of its Palomar Mountain the world's largest telescope, in Palomar Observatory, is constantly searching the universe for the heaven's mysteries. But actually the history of Temecula reaches far back before the advent of the first Spaniard on California's coast.

While there is no written history to prove the origin of Temecula's name, legends still told among descendants of Temecula's first inhabitants relate that many, many years ago when that part of the Southland was inhabited by the Nation of the Kahweahs and the tribes of the Co-com-cah-ras there came one day, striding across the mountains and valleys, a giant Indian prince whose mission it was to name all the places where Indians dwelt. And when the princely giant came to a high precipice on a boulder-strewn mountain he looked down in wonderment upon a peaceful village in a land of rolling hills and fertile meadows.

Among the many canyons that led into the hills from the peaceful valley the giant saw a great cleft in the mountains that led downward toward the distant booming surf and vast sea where the sun set every day. And as he watched, a breath of the sea came up through the cleft and brought with it a mist. And the mist mingled with the vapors from a lagoon, and it mingled with the smoke from the Indians' campfires, and with steam from hot springs in secluded vales where willows grew. And the mingled vapors formed a mist that diffused the desert sunshine.

That night, when the giant descended from the high precipice to join with the valley's inhabitants around the campfires, there was great rejoicing, for the giant had bestowed a name on the village of contentment. He called it Temech-va, which in the language of the tribe that dwelt there, means The Valley of Diffused Sunshine.

Today the mist from the ocean still comes up through the cleft in the mountain to mingle with smoke from home fires in the village of Temecula and remind the villagers of a giant Indian prince of long ago.

Some 6,000 Americans are now serving as Peace Corps Volunteers in 41 nations of Asia, Africa and Latin America. More Volunteers are needed. Requests for them pour in to the Washington headquarters daily. Peace Corps officials report that 5,000 new Volunteers are being trained this summer and fall.

Linda Louise Humphreys, on the arm of her father, Jack, walked down the aisle of the First Baptist Church in Elsinore on Saturday, October 3, where she was given in marriage to Daniel N. Baxter.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. W. Daniel Wagner.

The bride chose for her wedding a street length dress of white brocade. Her shoulder length veil was held in place with a pearl crown. She carried a white orchid surrounded with baby-breath and lily of the valley on a white Bible.

Mrs. Warner Stewart was the matron of honor and she was attired in a flowing chiffon dress of rose coral, with matching accessories. Her bouquet was of pale pink carnations.

John Nelson, a long-time friend of the bridegroom flew in from Hawaii to serve as the best man. Ushers for the wedding were James Withrow and Warner Stewart.

Linda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Humphreys of Quail Valley. She is a graduate of the Covina High School, class of 1961, after which she attended Newberry School of Beauty in Covina and also did some modeling. She is presently operating her own beauty shop in Quail Valley - - - Miss Linda Beauty Bar.

Dan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Baxter of Elsinore. He is a graduate of Elsinore Union High School, spent five years in the United States Marine Corps and is now associated with Brock Construction Company.

The National Political Show comes to a close

Tuesday when the voters go to the polls to decide who gets the Oscar for the best performance of the year.

Lyndon Johnson's best performance was his imitation of Franklin Delano Roosevelt although it would have been refreshing had he relieved the monotony by giving an occasional imitation of Ed Sullivan.

Pierre Salinger did his best to imitate John Kennedy but it was a rather crude performance.

Both these gentlemen can go back to being their natural selves again. The show is over.

In Barry Goldwater we have an honest and forthright gentleman, a man of decency and honor and a man who comes close to measuring up to President Theodore Roosevelt, and if ever we needed a man of that caliber in public office the time is now. He made no attempt to imitate anybody but himself.

We have just celebrated our first year living on a city lot in a city after nine years on a ranch and we are just once again becoming accustomed to the fact that when our front door bell rings it does not always indicate a friendly visit from our friends or neighbors.

While on the ranch our front door was one third of a mile from the front gate and in all those nine years we didn't have more than two or three agents call on us and they were probably lost.

Now as we rush to the front door in response to the alarm we are more than likely to be greeted by "Avon Calling", "Fuller Brush Man" or a dozen other merchants who ply their trade from door to door.

And speaking of the Fuller Brush Man I once knew a young man who held the all time record as a salesman for the Fuller Brush organization.

He worked two weeks and never sold a brush. He didn't have to quit. They fired him. Our present salesman is named Andy Handy. It's an asset even when transposed.

Well, when one is so far away from his old friends it is gratifying to be able to visit with a strange salesman now and then although it usually ends by costing us money.

This issue marks the beginning of the fourth year in the life of the La Laguna Revue and I am just as proud of its accomplishment as the editor or publisher could possibly be. To Roger Mayhall, the publisher, goes the credit for

Art Gediman, now Judge Gediman

Arthur Gediman, local Elsinore attorney, was appointed by the Riverside County Board of Supervisors to fill the unexpired term of Judge Stanley Root, who retired.

Judge Gediman will sit on the bench of the Elsinore Justice Court until Judge Root's term expires on January 4, 1965. At that time it is expected that he will retake the oath of office and his term will continue until the next primary election in June of 1966.

The Board of Supervisors voted unanimously for his appointment and it took effect immediately.

The former Judge, Stanley Root, has expressed a desire to travel.

Other applicants taking the examination for the position of judge were Mrs. Charline Bockover, present justice court clerk; Ed Hazard of Wildomar and L. K. Farnsworth.

keeping the magazine alive by working both the advertising and printing departments of the publication and to his wife, Dolores Mayhall, the editor, goes the credit for taking over that important job, when I resigned a year ago, and doing so well that I wasn't even missed. Dolores and her Staff Photographer, Rubie Zorrero, thoroughly cover the territory every month and keep their readers informed of everything worth while that is going on in the district, and that isn't easy. Congratulations and long live La Laguna Revue.

Lamps, over one hundred, in various sizes, shapes, style and colors greet you from the tops of mahogany, blond, maple and even marble top tables, which are strategically placed beside sofas that are Early American, Provincial or Contemporary in design and are quilted or plain, long or short, vivid in color or demure and most of them have 8-way hand tied, coil spring-housing.

In the chair department is every style and material conceivable. After one selects his sofa, lamps, chairs and tables it is just a short walk to the rear of the store to the carpet department where you can choose most any brand of carpet, from the Alexander Smith (of which House of Style holds the franchise) to the Hollytex. The patio of your home can not be neglected and Don Snyder and Richard Tabet, co-owners of the business have on the showroom floor, Vogue Rattan, which will make your patio as beautiful and comfortable a place as the living room.

Not only livingroom and patio furnishings are to be found at the House of Style, but your dining area, bedrooms and den furnishings can be purchased at the same time.

This is absolutely a one-stop home furnishings center and a great asset to Perris.

Residents of Sun City and outlying communities have a special service offered them, for there is a Mobil Unit, under the able supervision of Frank Backlin, that brings your carpeting and drapery samples to your door.

Don Snyder remarked that the "response to this new establishment from the residents of the Valleys is overwhelming and the only way they at House of Style know how to thank them is to keep quality merchandise for them to select from.

The facts speak - fantastic but true

November 22, 1964 will mark a passage of one year since the fatal shooting of John F. Kennedy the president of the United States.

Facts on Abraham Lincoln and John Kennedy were a much talked about item during the investigation of that time.

Both President Lincoln and President Kennedy were concerned with the issue of civil rights.

Lincoln was elected to office in 1860; Kennedy in 1960.

Both were slain on Friday and in the presence of their wives.

Both were shot from behind and in the head.

Their successors, both named Johnson, were Southern Democrats and both were in the Senate.

Andrew Johnson was born in 1808 and Lyndon Johnson in 1908.

John Wilkes Booth was born in 1839 and Lee Harvey Oswald in 1939.

Booth and Oswald were both assassinated before going to trail.

Both presidents' wives lost children through death, while in the White House.

Lincoln's secretary, whose name was Kennedy, advised him not to go to the theatre.

Kennedy's secretary, whose name was Lincoln, advised him not to go to Dallas.

John Wilkes Booth shot Lincoln in a theatre and ran to a warehouse.

Oswald shot Kennedy from a warehouse and ran to a theatre.

The names Lincoln and Kennedy each contain seven letters.

The names John Wilkes Booth and Lee Harvey Oswald each contain fifteen letters.

The facts speak - fantastic but true.

Happy Birthday Once More Gary & Laguna Revue

Here he is, our La Laguna Revue baby, who will be three years old on November 16. This young man was first featured in the December, 1961 issue, then on his first birthday in November of 1962, his second birthday in November of 1963.

This young man is going on his third birthday and we at Laguna Revue begin our fourth year of publication with this issue.

Our birthday baby's name is Gary Reed Van de Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight D. Van de Walker of Elsinore.

One more item of interest, Gary's progress is a little better than ours, for on September 29, 1964 he became the proud brother of a little sister and she permitted his parents to name her Heidi Jo. Say, how about that? See you next year Gary.

Outstanding Science Student

A search is under way throughout high schools in this area for the "outstanding science student" who will be nominated as a possible delegate to the 1964 National Youth Conference on the Atom, scheduled November 5-7 at Chicago, Ill.

Southern California Edison Company again this year plans to sponsor a delegation to the conference consisting of six top-notch science seniors and their science teachers selected from the 16 counties the electric company serves in California and Nevada. Mr. J. N. Savage, district manager, announced today.

One student and his teacher will attend the sixth annual conference representing each of Edison's six commercial divisions: Eastern, Metropolitan, Orange County, San Joaquin Valley, Southern & Western.

The Edison official said company school representatives have distributed nomination forms to all high school superintendents (public, parochial and private). Each school district is invited to nominate one student. From all the nominations, an impartial committee will select the six students to attend the conference, he said.

Stated purpose of the conference is "to present to a group of the nation's most able high school science students and teachers an authoritative and inspiring picture of the peaceful atom in its various applications, and to help advance interest in the study of science in the United States."

More than 600 persons from throughout the nation are expected to attend the conference. It will be held at the Sheraton-Chicago Hotel and will include field trips to such famous places as the Argonne National Laboratory and the Museum of Science and Industry, Mr. Savage said.

January 26, date set for Bond Election

Trustees of the Elsinore Union High School District recently set the date of January 26 for another election on local bonds and the approval of a state loan to build a new high school.

The total amount that voters will be asked to give their approval to will be $2,000,000 in bonds and $2,000,000 for a loan from the state.

Schools are a necessity, and Elsinore is in need of a high school, as a goodly portion of the present one has been condemned.

Alumni Time Again

The annual alumni dinner and dance of Elsinore Union High School alumnus will be held on Saturday, November 14 at the Veterans Memorial Building located south of Elsinore, on old Highway 74.

On the menu for the dinner, which will be served turkey or baked ham with from 7 to 9 p. m., is roast sauce.

The dance will begin about nine, and a snack bar will serve throughout the evening.

Victorious Season?

This years soccer team assembled at E. N. M. S. is perhaps not the best but, in the words of its coach, Colonel F. R. Stimus, "The potential is there if the players want to work hard." The practices this year have been up and down. Sometimes it will look good and at other times it looks like the worst team ever assembled.

Steady performances are regularly put on by both Lt. Tilson, and Sgt. Curtis. James Delbridge is a good goalie but he still needs a little experience. The backfield is steady, but the major problem this year is formulation of a good fast line.

Will this be a successful soccer season for the E. N. M. S. squad? We'll let you form your own opinions after the first game on the 31 of October.

The players going out for the team are:

Kenneth Bates, Jaime Camhi, Moe Carpenter, Bruce Countryman, Fred Covina, Alan Curtis, Dave Delbridge, Jim Delbridge, Barry Feldman, Jesse Goetz.

Robert Noble, Frank Ol-son, Larry Parkhurst, John Polk, Michael Pope, Kurt Richter, Rick Scalzo, Steve Smith, Elmer Tilson, Fred Tiefenthaler.

Officer Roy Shadel of the Elsinore Police Department, Chief Joseph W. Beckley and Officer J. E. Brewer of the Perris Police Department received letters of commendation from J. Edgar Hoover of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, United States Department of Justice, Washington D. C., for their work in apprehending one of the FBI's Ten Most Wanted Criminals, Lloyd Donald Greeson, Jr.

The arrest took place in Elsinore on September 22.

Following is a copy of the letter received by Officer Shadel, Chief Beckley and Officer Brewer received similar letters.

"Mr. Wesley G. Grapp, Special Agent in Charge of our Los Angeles Office, has advised me of your participation in the arrest of one of the FBI's Ten most wanted criminals, Lloyd Donald Greeson, Jr.

"My associates and I want to take this opportunity to congratulate you for this outstanding accomplishment. Through your efforts and the efforts of the police officers who accompanied you, a badly wanted fugitive from the State of Florida has been apprehended. This spirit of cooperativeness is essential in our never-ending war against the criminal element."

And the letter was signed "J. Edgar Hoover".

WE SHALL LONG REMEMBER

Jacque V. Henes, who died on October 17, 1964 as a result of an automobile accident on the Elsinore-Perris road.

Jacque was the wife of Lowell (Buzz) Henes, of the Holiday Restaurant in Elsinore. In this issue we published a story of the Western Days celebration that took place at the Holiday, as well as a photo of Jacque.

She was relatively new to Elsinore, having lived here less than one year, and married six months - - but during that time she endeared herself to hundreds of people.

She was employed by Valley Appliance Store in Sun City as bookkeeper and receptionist.

Richard Bulawa, who was driving the automobile when it was hit head-on, is at Mercy Hospital, San Diego, at the time of this writing.

in the clear green lake. The highest waterfall in Canada, Takakkaw, an Indian word meaning "It is wonderful".

Then the spiral tunnels, an engineering marvel constructed by the Canadian Pacific Railroad in 1908, where both ends of an 82-car freight train may be seen while the middle is hidden in the spirals—one end 500 feet higher than the other.

It was there that they came to the Great Continental Divide, where the waters separate, flowing left to the Pacific and right to the Atlantic.

These two ambitious sightseers of California marveled at Emerald Lake and walking over a natural bridge with water boiling through a narrow pass beneath them.

They left Canada with much regret, going via bus through Montana to see a bit of the northwest and then enplaned home over the Bonneville Salt Flats of Utah --and finally home, with memories never to be forgotten.

Valley Couple United

Miss Ann Helen De Jong became the bride of John Anthony Sipos on September 19, in a ceremony performed in St. Francis of Rome Catholic Church in the presence of 250 guests. Rev. Patrick Linnimann of Our Lady of the Lake Catholic Church at Lake Arrowhead officiated at the eleven o'clock ceremony.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of Chantilly lace styled with scalloped neckline, long tapered sleeves and a belled skirt with a detachable train, the fitted bodice was trimmed with mother of pearl sequins and seed pearls. She wore a diamond pendant necklace which belonged to her great-grandmother in Holland. She carried carnations and stephanotis centered by two orchids.

Bonnie De Jong, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Olivia Sena, Mrs. Judy Kritner, and Linda Harrison. They were identically gowned in floor length gowns of royal blue satin with scooped necklines and long fitted sleeves. The princess style dresses had bell shaped skirts styled with a double bow in back caught to the waist. The attendants bouquets were of red carnations.

Best man was Stephen Sohn and serving as ushers were John De Jong, David Yake and Charles Wooley.

Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John De Jong of Corydon Road in Elsinore. She is a native of Holland and moved to Elsinore with her family in 1948. She is a graduate of the Elsinore Union High School and until her marriage was employed at Ortega Oaks Market.

John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sipos of Marion Avenue, Elsinore and is also a graduate of Elsinore High School, class of 1958. He attended Riverside City College and served four years in the United States Navy.

A wedding reception was held in the Veteran's Memorial Hall where the traditional wedding cake was cut. The cake, which was of unusual design, was made for the occasion by the bridegroom's mother.

The couple are making their home in Riverside after a honeymoon trip to San Francisco.

A visit to the Art Center

At the corner of Marie Drive and Grand Avenue in Elsinore is a small building with a sign above the door reading "Art Exhibit".

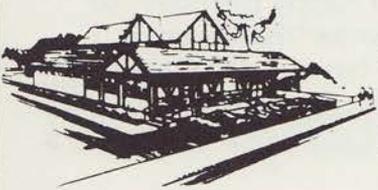

Upon entering the building you find yourself in what is a typical artist's world. Paintings, paints, molds, easels are seen throughout the exhibit room.

Meeting and greeting you at the door is Esther Clapp, who is presently keeping the exhibit open from 1 to 5, Tuesdays through Saturdays.

This is the place where artists gather on Tuesdays to learn portrait painting, Wednesdays and Thursdays for oil painting, Fridays, those gifted in crafts take over and on Saturdays, visitors can view the handiwork. Once a year the group holds cake decorating classes.

The talent is not hidden in this building though, for these artists have one-man shows at various establishments. Ann Schwartz of Elsinore recently had one at the Jewish Cultural Center.

On November 7th and 8th at the Elsinore Woman's Club on Graham Avenue an exhibit will be held displaying local Valley talent. These exhibits are free and the members of the Elsinore Valley Art Center invite everyone to spend Saturday or Sunday afternoon viewing the talent of your neighbors.

Brains not my "Claim to Fame"

Last month I goofed - - according to the publisher.

Our birthday was not October, it is November and here I was lauding our great achievement. So much so in fact I even gave away birthday gifts of free subscriptions in honor of our fourth birthday.

But . . . it was a month too early and the publisher asked what I intended to do about the error since it is against our policy to give the same gift twice.

So . . . all non-readers . . . our new offer is:

Give a gift subscription to anyone who already is a subscriber and get yours free. (We won't tell the publisher if you readers renew yours and give a gift though).

Also, go through your collection of Revues and if you are missing some of the back issues, send us the month and year and we will replace them for you at a nominal fee. $.35 each. If you need 12 back issues, any month, send in $3, just as if it were a subscription, and you can save $1.20.

Get on the ball, take advantage of my stupidity, since this new offer expires on December 1.

Please, wish us a happy birthday, so the publisher will know that even if I forgot, you readers have a good memory.
